

ARMENIAN Missionary Association of America

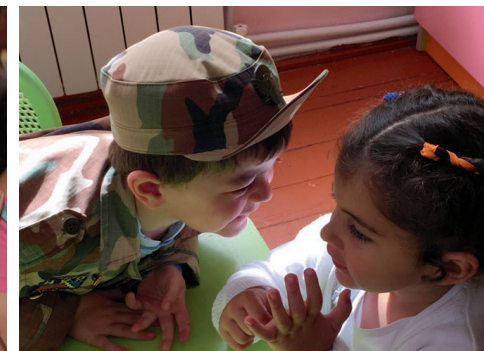

Founded in 1918, the Armenian Missionary Association of America (AMAA) serves as the missionary arm of the Armenian Evangelical Churches worldwide. AMAA is a non-sectarian charitable organization which renders the services to those in need without discrimination. It provides services to underprivileged youth through educational relief and missionary ministries. AMAA is a non-sectarian Christian organization which renders the services to those in need without discrimination.

This remarkable organization operates and supports a broad range of educational, evangelical, relief, community development, social service, health care, church, child care and other ministries in over twenty-four countries.

Several of AMAA's programs for children and youth include: Christmas programs which distribute Christmas Joy packages to over 25,000 children and teenagers, two summer overnight camps and several day care camps which serve over 11,000 children, teenagers and handicapped orphaned youth, as well as many arts, sports and musical programs.

For additional information about the AMAA and their Child Support Programs, please visit their website at amaa.org.

AMAA Orphan and Child Care

AMAA Orphan and Child Care Boston Committee

Pamela Avedisian

Edrina Barsamian

Annie Chekijian

Dianne Chilingirian

Susan Adamian Covo

Joanne DeAngelis

Phyllis Dohanian

Jennifer Esserian

Armine Hovhannissian

Joyce Janjigian

Deborah Jigarjian

Rosemary Martirosian

Jeanmarie Papelian, Esq.

Candace Simourian

Michele Simourian

Diane Spera

The Armenian Missionary Association of America
Orphan and Child Care Committee cordially invites you to its

26th Annual Celebration in the Spirit of Giving to benefit Armenian children in crisis

An evening of food, wine and fun – featuring a Jive & Silent auction, wine pull and Zankagner Performing Arts
Ensemble

Music by special guest John Baboian

Thursday, September 28, 2017
7:00PM

One Hundred Dollars Per Person
RSVP By September 12

..... WELLESLEY COUNTRY CLUB
294 Wellesley Avenue
..... Wellesley Hills, MA 02481