

visit www.AMAA.org.

For additional information about the AMAA and their Child Support Programs, please Centers.

towns and villages, as well as many arts, sports and musical programs in local Community Day Centers, Milk Fund Program for infants, Christmas and Easter programs in over 45 Education programs, two overnight summer camps, regional day camps, five "Shogh" children and youth which include, but not limited to: Child Sponsorship program, Child Numerous programs, within AMAA's Armenia and Artsakh operating budgets focus on and other ministries in twenty-four countries.

This remarkable organization operates and supports a broad range of educational, evangelical, relief, community development, social service, health care, church, child care non-profit which renders its services to those in need, without discrimination.

Founded in 1918, the Armenian Missionary Association of America (AMAA) serves as the missionary arm of the Armenian Evangelical Churches worldwide. AMAA is a 501(c)(3)

Armenian Missionary Association of America

AMAA Orphan and Child Care

Changing Children's Lives 30 Years and Counting

AMAA Orphan and Child Care Boston Committee

Pamela Avedisian
Edrina Barsamian
Dianne Chilingirian
Susan Adamian Covo
Joanne DeAngelis
Phyllis Dohanian
Jennifer Esserian
Armine Hovhannissian
Joyce Janjigian
Deborah Jigarjian
Rosemary Martirosian
Jeanmarie Papelian, Esq.
Candace Simourian
Michele Simourian
Diane Spera

The Armenian Missionary Association of America
Orphan and Child Care

Changing Children's Lives 30 Years and Counting

Thursday, May 9, 2019, 7:00PM

An evening of food, wine and fun featuring a live and silent auction and wine pull

Honoring Founding Orphan & Child Care Co-Chair

Michele Simourian

with a special tribute to original Boston Area Committee Members

TICKET
One Hundred Dollars Per Person
RSVP By May 1

..... WELLESLEY COUNTRY CLUB
300 Wellesley Avenue
Wellesley Hills, MA 02481