OVERCOMING DIFFICULT TIMES A SUCCESS STORY

When Alla was just 4 years old, her parents got divorced. Alla had to move to her grandmother’s house where she, her mother Louise, and her two uncles lived. Four years later, Alla’s father died of a heart attack. The transition between her parents divorcing, moving into a different home and her father dying placed Alla and her mother in a psychological crisis.

A relative introduced Alla and her mother to the AMAA Center in Gyumri, where Alla attended Sunday School and a theatrical group. Due to their social condition, Alla became included in AMAA’s Child Sponsorship Program. The only income Alla and her mother had was the stipend and support from the AMAA Sponsorship Program.

Utilizing her sewing skills, Louise participated in events hosted by the AMAA Center by making costumes and designing the stage. She also volunteered as a Math teacher at “Shogh” Day Center and a summer camp volunteer at Sheen-Shoghig Camp in Hankaivan. Consequently, AMAA decided to hire Alla’s mother as a full-time tutor.

Over the years, the family’s social condition improved drastically. Alla has become an active participant in camps. She is very talented and smart. The support of the AMAA Gyumri Community helped Louise and Alla have stronger faith and belief in God. Today, Louise has become financially independent. She and Alla are respected and loved among the community.

The AMAA Center in Gyumri has become a second family for Alla and her mother and the AMAA Child Sponsorship Program. Visit amaa.org to see more children from struggling families who need your help.

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
