

Armenian Presbyterian Church invites you to join us to attend a presentation for:

Haigazian University:

Navigating Through the Challenges of Our Days

Reverend Dr. Paul Haidostian

President of Haigazian University in Beirut, Lebanon

Dr. Haidostian will discuss the mission-oriented and proactive role of Haigazian University in the context of the current challenges of Armenian life in Lebanon. As the country goes through numerous disasters, institutions such as Haigazian University face a variety of challenges related to regional tensions, socioeconomic problems of the students, maintaining qualified faculty and staff as well as securing a stable financial institutional future.

Saturday, March 5, 2022 at 3:30pm

at the Armenian Presbyterian Church, 140 Forest Avenue, Paramus, NJ

Admission is free. Refreshments will be served. Parking is available.

Haigazian University was founded in Beirut in 1955 by the UAECNE and AMAA as an American-style liberal arts university that emphasizes a challenging curriculum, good teacher-student relations, and emphasis on leadership training and service. Dr. Haidostian was appointed President of Haigazian University in 2002. He is the Chair of the Central Committee of the Union of the Armenian Evangelical Churches in the Near East and is actively involved in the leadership of numerous international, regional and local educational, ecclesiastical and ecumenical bodies and institutions. He lectures, teaches and writes in Armenian, Arabic and English.
